YOURS TO EXPLORE ST. JOHN'S, ANTIGUA

The skyline of St. John's, the capital and largest city of Antigua and Barbuda, is dominated by the magnificently evocative white baroque towers of St. John's Cathedral. Built in 1845, the church is now in its third incarnation, as earthquakes in 1683 and in 1745 destroyed the previous structures. The nation has built its economy around tourism, replacing sugar, which dominated the economy from the 18th century to the 20th century. Explore the Heritage Quay, Public/Arts & Craft Markets, beautiful beaches and amazing landscape.

TIP OF THE DAY: Stay healthy. Wash your hands frequently and make use of the hand sanitizers around the ship.
