NAUTICAL INFORMATION

The navigation will continue throughout the day, heading southeast, and in the morning, we will cross the Old Bahama Channel, a strait between the Cuban coast (to the South) and the Great Bahama Bank (to the North). It's about 100 miles long and 15 miles wide. Later in the day, we will sail along the northeastern coastline of Cuba, visible on the starboard side (right side when facing forward). We will pass iconic locations such as the Sabana Camaguey Archipelago, Playa Guardalavaca, and Baracoa. Baracoa, founded by Diego Velázquez de Cuéllar in 1511, is the oldest city in Cuba, established on the southeastern edge of the island with the name "Nuestra Señora de la Asunción de Baracoa."
