

CUNARD 4 QUEENS GIN

United by luxury and heritage, Cunard and Pickering's Gin have joined together to create these small batch artisan gins. Copper distilled in Edinburgh, the award-winning Pickering's Gin is owned by the great nephew of Cunard Captain George Gibbons; a chance connection that has produced a most exceptional gin collection.

TRADITIONAL

Genever is the original juniper spirit. The forerunner of today's gin with pre-16th century origins, it was first sold as a medicine in Belgium. A must try for gin enthusiasts, it is best served with apple juice, ginger ale or as a martini.

	ABV	US$	Martini US$
Zuidam Young Grain Genever, The Netherlands Gentle earthy juniper and tangy grapefruit notes with hints of ginger and fresh herbs.	35%	10.50	15.00
Zuidam 5 Year Old Single Barrel 'Zeer Oude Genever' (Aged), The Netherlands Rich and intense, made with malted barley, rye and corn. Notes of oak, toffee and fudge.	38%	11.50	16.00
Zuidam 1 Year Old Korenwijn, The Netherlands Traditional-style Korenwijn meaning 'corn wine'. Delicate grain with notes of toffee and fudge.	38%	11.00	15.50

Gin, short for Genever, soon found its way across the channel. Sweeter 'Old Tom' gins were the preferred style until the 1830s when a cleaner, smoother gin emerged, with juniper as its definitive flavour. This new type of gin was coined 'London Dry'.

TONIC WATERS & MIXERS

In the 1800's gin and tonic started life in India where members of the British Raj drank it for its purported anti-malarial properties. Today, the majority of gin is drunk with tonic. Choosing the right tonic is as vital as choosing your gin, as it is usually two thirds of the drink!
