COMMODORE
SIR JAMES CHARLES

KBE CBE RD RNR (1865 – 1928)
Knighted by: King George V
Date: 1918

With quite the reputation for doing things on a grand scale, Charles' dinner parties aboard Aquitania were well renowned as opulently social affairs, often centring around entire herds of exotic feather-gilded fare.

Ever the showman, he bowed out of service just as grandly upon the completion of his 726th transatlantic crossing – passing away in his quarters on what was to be the eve of his retirement.

THE GRAND ATLANTIC

US$ 17.50

This martini captures the best of American flavours to celebrate Charles' transatlantic reign.

It's a spirit-led martini with no half-measures – just as this rather extravagant Commodore would have wanted.

COMMODORE
SIR ARTHUR ROSTRON

KBE CBE RD RNR (1869 – 1940)
Knighted by: King George V
Date: 1926

Calmer than the oceans he called home, Rostron is perhaps the most celebrated of all Cunard captains. His repose lead to the safe rescue of all survivors of Titanic, prudently redirecting heating power to the engines and ensuring Carpathia's swift arrival.

His composure finally faltered when he refused to travel to the shipbreakers with his beloved Mauretania, overcome with emotion after ten years as her master.

THE 10TH COURSE

US$ 17.50

To honour Sir Arthur's valiant decision to alter his ship's course, we've used ingredients from the dessert course served on board the Titanic: a sweet peach and chartreuse jelly with delicate botanical notes.

Bacardí Carta Blanca & Trois Rivières Blanc Rums • Créme de Peche • Yellow Chartreuse

COMMODORE
SIR EDGAR BRITTEN

KB RD RNR (1874 – 1936)
Knighted by: King George V
Date: 1934

From humble Bradford beginnings and against the will of his family, Britten escaped to sea at just aged fifteen. Steadfastly working his way up from the bottom ranks with nothing but his own perseverance as his guide.

In the years to come, that same decisiveness would see him appointed Commodore to the newly created Cunard White Star Line and first master to Queen Mary, commanding both her maiden voyage and the taking of the Blue Riband, awarded for the fastest Atlantic crossing by a commercial passenger vessel.

BLUE RIBAND

Representing the accolade of the Blue Riband, this martini pays homage to Britten's dedication to the ocean.

Delight in a symphony of tasting notes spanning smooth toasted coconut and a touch of velvety chocolate, complemented with pineapple bitters.

COMMODORE
SIR ROBERT IRVING

KB OBE RD RNR (1877 – 1954)
Knighted by: King George VI
Date: 1943

While other Commodores tended to be of modest origin, Robert Irving was certainly not. Heralding from a wealthy and well-connected Scottish Border family, he was chieftain of his clan.

Irving's service to the company saw his command of both Aquitania and Queen Mary. He once boldly docked the 81,235-ton Queen in New York without the usual aid of 12 powerful tugs during a strike. He accomplished the feat with only two rowboat helpers, 'fervent prayers' to St. Christopher, and favourable conditions. After an illustrious career he retired to his family seat 1944.

GREAT SCOT

US$ 17.50

To commemorate this Scottish Officer's rather audacious manoeuvre, we have lightly peated whisky, autumnal porcini and a hint of nutty sherry. This libation is accompanied by a creamy, crumbly cheese to break the convention of the classic martini. Savour the delectable combination of smokey and creamy aromas that enhance the spectrum of this martini.

COMMODORE
SIR JAMES BISSET

KB CBE RD RNR LLD (1883 – 1966)
Knighted by: King George VI
Date: 1945

Valuable cargo came to be something of a defining characteristic of Bisset's tenure with the company.

Throughout WWII he commanded both Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth across the Atlantic, once carrying a record 16,683 American GIs and becoming a personal friend to Churchill before, during peacetime, safely delivering the Magna Carta home to Lincoln Cathedral by sleeping with it safely stowed beneath his bed.

LIBERTATUM

Taking its name from the Latin word for 'freedom and liberty', this free spirited martini features tropical notes, hints of spice and herbal botanicals from the playful addition of absinthe.

Black Tot Finest Caribbean Rum • Allspice Dram Liqueur • Absinthe Habanero Bitters

COMMODORE
SIR CYRIL ILLINGWORTH

KB RD RNR (1883 – 1958)
Knighted by: King George VI
Date: 1949

Ever the patriot, Illingworth once said of his countrymen, "We have the great intangibles – character, experience, patience, determination. We are not called Great Britain for nothing!"

A man of both endurance and eloquence, he once weathered an exceptionally violent storm aboard the Ascania's bridge for 75 sleepless hours. His tenacity and perseverance earned him the captaincy of Queen Mary in 1942.

FULL STEAM AHEAD

Expressing Illingworth's passion for Great Britain, this martini is thoughtfully crafted with Cunard's very own Queen Anne Edition gin, Cunard Dry Vermouth, with Dulse seaweed for added minerality and a dash of Surrey Khoosh Bitters.

COMMODORE
SIR IVAN THOMPSON

KB (1894 – 1970)

Knighted by: Queen Elizabeth II

Date: 1955

Raised in the constant presence of Liverpool's industrious shipyards, it is perhaps no surprise that Thompson grew into a seafaring life in steam — nor that he became a near fanatical Liverpool Football Club supporter.

Assuming command of Queen Elizabeth in 1951 and Queen Mary a year later, he remained insistent that the latest football scores be telegraphed and delivered to him on the bridge every Sunday.

KEEPING SCORE

To capture the energy and enthusiasm of this football fan, we present our sharp-shooting coffee-led martini. With rich coffee liqueur, intensely aromatic American oak-aged whiskey, and citrus-peppered notes, it's guaranteed to get you on the edge of your seat.

CUNARD CLASSIC MARTINI COLLECTION

MADE TO YOUR MEASURE

Enjoy your martini precisely as you please.

Our bartenders blend the art of mixology with your discerning taste, allowing you to choose a spirited base of gin or vodka before crafting a bespoke martini tailored just for you.

SHAKEN OR STIRRED?

Our martinis are invariably stirred to ensure the flavour is not diluted, as per esteemed mixologists' methodology.

However, if your preference is for a shaken martini, we'll be happy to make it your way.

RATIOS

The proportion of gin or vodka and vermouth in a martini is a delicate balance. Less vermouth results in a drier martini, while more vermouth results in a wetter martini allowing the vermouth's botanicals to shine through.

Over the decades, flavour profiles have evolved to become more adventurous. Experimental ratios led the way to distinct flavours and complexities shaped by the calibre of vermouth.

When it comes to selecting a martini, there's a sophisticated combination to satisfy every refined taste.

Explore different ratios to unearth unique tastes.

"FIFTY-FIFTY"

1.5 oz of gin or vodka and 1.5 oz of vermouth.
For those who appreciate balance.

"SOPPING WET"

1 ¾ oz of gin or vodka and 1 ¾ oz of vermouth.
An indulgence for those seeking a positively spirited creation.

"CLASSIC WET MARTINI"

2 ¾ oz of gin or vodka and ½ oz of vermouth
Suited for those who prefer timeless simplicity in every sip.

"MONTGOMERY"

2 ¾ oz of gin or vodka and ½ oz of vermouth.
Not just the name of a rich man's cat, but a favourite of Ernest Hemingway.

"FRANKLIN"

2 ¾ oz gin or vodka and ½ oz vermouth (stirred with ice, then discarded).
Order one of these and you'll really look the part.

ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

"Dirty"
A polite ¼ oz dash of olive brine.
An ode to Franklin D. Roosevelt's favourite, who even carried a sophisticated 'martini kit' on foreign trips.

"Filthy"
A hearty ½ oz dash of olive brine and an uneven number of olives.
Both salty, sophisticated, and superstitious, of course.

"Bradford"
Shaken with bitters and ice.
A zesty, much-loved concoction dating to the 1900s.

"Churchill"
Dry gin, stirred, with an unopened bottle of vermouth waved above the mixing glass. In other words, very dry.

GARNISHES

Whether it's your tasting palate or superstitions that guide your choice of garnish, we have a host of accompaniments to embellish your martini, spanning lemons, olives, or onions. We recommend using an orange twist instead of lemon for red or rosé vermouths.

"Dickens"
No olives, no twist, and certainly no turns – just great expectations with every sip.

"Gibson"
Two simple yet delicious pickled pearl onions.
Legend has it that the Gibson originated from a savvy 1950s banker who discreetly sipped pickle-garnished cold water during indulgent three-martini client lunches.
